AimMortgage announces Tom Couture as Vice President and Mortgage Loan Officer

Lubbock, TX: Tom Couture is the Vice President and Mortgage Loan Officer for AimMortgage. Tom grew up in Montpelier Vermont where he began his mortgage career in 1977 at the National Life Insurance Company. During his 7 year tenure he learned all the basics of the mortgage business by working in each area of the department. In 1985 he and his young family moved to Lubbock Texas to take a job in the Mortgage department at Plains National Bank. His 19 year career at Plains included managing Secondary Marketing, moving into Mortgage Loan Origination as a loan officer and PlainsCapital acquired McAfee Mortgage Company in the early 90's giving Tom the opportunity to be involved in all areas of management and administration of the company, ending up as President of McAfee Mortgage overseeing 450 million per year in production and 16 branches.

In 2006 PlainsCapital merged McAfee Mortgage into a larger mortgage subsidiary which they owned in Dallas TX. At that time Tom moved to City Bank Mortgage in Lubbock, again as Secondary Marketing Manager, pricing, selling and assisting loan officers with the 300 million dollar per year pipeline.

In 2011 he joined The Texas Tech Federal Credit Union as Mortgage Loan Officer producing over 30 million per year in production.

He has been active for many years in the Texas Mortgage Bankers and is also on the Board of Directors of the Lubbock Housing Finance Corporation. Tom is the proud father of 5 grown children and grandfather of 5.
